Interior

The property has a dining kitchen and children's playroom on the bottom floor, on the first floor we have two reception rooms and a toilet. On the top floor we have three bedrooms and a bathroom. The interior is quite newly decorated, a typical family home. There are some period features, such as a fireplace in the front room.

Exterior

The front of the house is on a main road, it's a stone built Victorian terraced house. To the back of the property the view is of the hills and the valley. There is lots of countryside in the area as we are based in a valley bottom.
